CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: 1. Collect antique and heirloom brooches from family and friends for a bouquet that's sparkly and sentimental. 2. Wildflower blooms in this abstract bouquet epitomized the offbeat charm of NEW ORLEANS. 3. A mix of spray roses, button mums and succulents completed this Southern springtime bouquet. 4. Giant peonies offset a loose arrangement of purple wildflowers and dusty miller. 5. Muted pastels in a hand-tied bouquet, like this rose and peony arrangement, are always classic, romantic and on-trend. 6. In warm destinations, it's all about orchids; instead of white, play up the flowers' vibrant shades of pink and purple. 7. This FLORIDA beach bride accented hanging amaranth and other greenery with a few spare blooms and a turquoise ribbon wrap. 8. Handcrafted paper blooms make a lasting memento from your wedding day.
